Build a lifetime of financial security

It's never too early or too late to secure your loved ones. No matter what phase of life you're in, you'll want to focus on spending time with your family or fulfilling your retirement dreams – not worrying about your financial security. Gleaner Life Whole Life Solutions can help you establish a financial foundation that lasts your entire life, so you can focus on the things that matter to you, like watching your children or grandchildren grow or finally planning that big vacation trip across America. We can help you fulfill any type of financial security need, from protecting your family or securing your income, to planning your estate or saving for a rainy day. Gleaner offers whole life products for every scenario.

Life insurance that grows with you

Gleaner Life Whole Life Solutions offer the financial security of life insurance with the added benefits of permanent coverage, guaranteed cash value and dividends. While you can't put a price on the things you contribute to your loved ones, life insurance can pay off outstanding loans or mortgages or replace an income. Whether you select a single-premium whole life insurance product, like RMD Life, or our traditional whole life product, Secure Life, you can secure your loved ones' financial future now while providing more options for your future.

Permanent coverage provides peace of mind that your financial security will not expire. As long as required premium payments are made, whole life insurance coverage will continue to secure your loved ones.

Guaranteed cash value allows you to borrow against your certificate if a financial need should arise. At the time of the insured’s death, any outstanding loan amount is subtracted from the certificate’s death benefit.

Dividends are paid based on the Society’s annual performance as approved by the Board of Directors. You can receive dividends paid in cash or use your dividends to purchase additional life insurance. Other dividend options are also available for Secure Life.

Did you know that you can use life insurance to leave a financial gift to a charitable organization?

Think single-premium whole life for charitable giving!
Secure Life

Traditional whole life insurance

Financial security for every season

Secure Life brings together the simplicity of traditional whole life insurance and the flexibility of features like additional term coverage and a guaranteed insurability option for purchasing additional coverage without underwriting. With guaranteed level premiums, your payments will never increase, giving you the stability to secure your home, your family and your future. As the seasons of your life change, Secure Life will be there to protect you and your loved ones with all the benefits of permanent life insurance coverage.

If you purchase Secure Life before age 37, the guaranteed insurability option provides opportunities for added coverage in the future, allowing you to purchase an additional $10,000-$50,000 of coverage at various points before you reach age 40. Secure Life also features an option for decreasing term coverage. Using this option, you can purchase additional term life insurance coverage on the insured or a spouse that decreases over time, ending at age 70, as your need for coverage decreases. RMD Life

Single-premium whole life

Turn required minimum distributions (RMDs) into financial security

By purchasing permanent life insurance coverage now through RMD Life, you can use the guaranteed insurability option (GIO) to purchase additional coverage from ages 70-80. You can do this by using the funds from your future RMDs to purchase more single-premium whole life certificates – without proving your insurability. For instance, you could choose to reinvest an RMD into equities one year. In another year, you could exercise the benefits of RMD Life and use your distributions to purchase an additional single-premium whole life certificate. Each new certificate could go to the same beneficiary or different beneficiaries.

If you purchase RMD Life from ages 65-70, you can begin building additional life insurance coverage at age 70. If you purchase RMD Life from ages 70-75, you can begin building additional life insurance coverage immediately. You don't have to purchase additional coverage every year, but once you begin using this unique RMD Life guaranteed insurability option (GIO) feature at age 70, you will need to purchase additional coverage at least every 36 months or you will lose the ability to purchase more life insurance. You can purchase additional coverage once per year with a maximum of 10 additions. See examples on the RMD Life chart (on the far right panel).

According to The Wall Street Journal, 38% of RMDs in 2013 were reinvested or saved into another account.¹

Legacy Life

Single-premium whole life

Leave a lasting legacy through life insurance

With Legacy Life, you can have permanent life insurance coverage now and use the guaranteed insurability option (GIO) to purchase subsequent single-premium whole life certificates without proving your insurability. This allows you to build financial security using funds from existing accounts (like traditional savings, CDs, annuities or money market accounts). For instance, you could use a maturing CD to purchase additional coverage one year. In another year, you could purchase added coverage using funds from an annuity that is out of its surrender charge period. Even more, each new certificate can have a different beneficiary. For example, you could use one certificate to leave an inheritance for a child or grandchild and another as a gift to a charitable organization.

Once you purchase Legacy Life, you can begin building additional coverage at any time. You don’t have to purchase additional coverage every year, but you will need to purchase additional coverage at least every 36 months or you will lose the ability to purchase more life insurance. You can purchase additional coverage once per year with a maximum of 15 additions. See examples on the Legacy Life chart (on the right panel).
